Terms & Conditions

Section 1 Services. ANTN agrees to provide training, news, and information via its Internet website (www.antndigicast.com) which is available 24 hours per day.

Section 2.1 Invoice Subscription Payment Terms. Subscriber agrees to pay ANTN a quarterly or annual subscription fee for basic services as defined in Section 1. The subscription cost for certificated airports is based on airport hub size as designated by FAA. Please refer to Table 1 to determine the cost for a specific hub size. The invoice issued for the initial subscription term will be due and payable immediately. Subsequent invoices will be issued and due on the first day following the expiration of the previous subscription term in accordance with the renewal terms set forth in these terms and conditions.

Section 2.2 Credit Card Subscription Payment Terms. Subscriber agrees to pay ANTN a monthly, quarterly or annual subscription fee for basic services as defined in Section 1. The subscription cost for certificated airports is based on airport hub size as designated by FAA. Please refer to Table 1 to determine the cost for a specific hub size. The credit card provided will be charged immediately after submission for the initial subscription term and automatically drafted on the first day following the expiration of the previous subscription term in accordance with the renewal terms set forth in these terms and conditions.

Section 3 Equipment. ANTN does not provide any equipment necessary to receive or use the Digicast service. Subscribers will need a computer that is connected to the internet to access the training site. Although not required, a high speed internet connection is strongly recommended.

Section 4 Term and Termination. The term of this subscription shall commence upon the first date of billing and shall automatically be extended for the billing term selected, unless, not less than 30 days prior to such renewal date, Subscriber gives notice in writing of its intent not to extend this Agreement. Notwithstanding other provisions of these terms and conditions, ANTN may, for any reason, decline to continue offering services to Subscriber after 30-days written notice.

Section 5 Covenants. Subscriber agrees that ANTN programming is purchased for viewing only by Subscriber personnel. Subscriber will not reproduce any program for use at any other location unless otherwise agreed to in writing by ANTN.

Section 6 Disclaimer. The content contained on the Digicast website is intended for information purposes only and may not reflect the views of AA AE/ANTN. Conditions and factors may vary at different locations which may influence the use of training techniques demonstrated on the Digicast website. AA AE/ANTN and any airport/agency involved in creating the training material for this site accept no responsibility for organizations or personnel that may choose to apply the information disseminated.
